Rules of order for the day

In order to make sure that our congregational meetings run in an orderly fashion, and so that each person will have an opportunity to share their thoughts, questions, and concerns, we will follow these rules of order:

1. All congregational meetings shall be generally governed according to "Roberts Rules of Order—Revised"
2. In addition:
 - a. Items for discussion at a congregational meeting shall first be submitted to the Church Council and placed on a future congregational meeting agenda.
 - b. Items for discussion will be published on the congregational meeting agenda
 - c. Anyone addressing the meeting must speak from an available microphone
 - d. Any person wishing to speak has a two-minute time limit and may not speak again until at least two others have had an opportunity to speak
 - e. When the "question is called" on a particular topic, discussion is closed and a vote is taken.
 - f. Audio/video recording of any congregational meeting is not allowed
